

The Towns Around.

PEACHAM.

Missionary Society Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Ladies' Home Missionary Society was held in the vestry of the Congregational church Friday afternoon. Subject for the meeting, Plan of work for the coming year, a brief sketch of which was given by the president, Mrs. E. C. Merrill reported for the foreign department that $64.70 had been received. The report of the home department was given by Miss Jennette Varnum. She said $130.64 had been raised this year beside the value of sewing done and articles contributed for the barrels. A barrel was sent to McIntosh valued at $30; actual cost of materials for home missionary barrel has been $56.72, but with sewing added the barrel was valued at $79.14. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Mary Wilson; vice-pres., Miss Bessie Varnum; secretary and treasurer of foreign work, Mrs. E. C. Merrill; secretary and treasurer of home department, Mrs. Laura E. Palmer. Miss Laura C. Bailey was chosen as her substitute, as she felt she could not serve. Delegates to state meeting: Miss Bessie Varnum, Mrs. Sarah Blanchard. It was voted to send a barrel to McIntosh and one to a home missionary.

Miss Mahel Wilson has returned to her school at Johnson; Miss Eliza Adams to Washington, Penn.; Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Johnson and their three children, Stephen, Rachel and Lucy to Pittsburg, Penn.

Gardner Kenerson and his sister visited relatives at Lisbon and other places in that vicinity last week.

Mrs. Mary Cheney from St. Johnsbury spent several days visiting her cousin, George B. Sanborn.

Mrs. F. H. Varnum and Miss Jennette Varnum were in St. Johnsbury recently.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sargent from Washington, D. C., are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Osgood from Lower Cabot visited at Mrs. Laura Palmer's the first of the week.

Mrs. Smart is spending the week with her brother at Calais. Mr. Smart is at Cabot.

Mrs. McDonald and daughter Stella returned last week to their home at Cambridge, Mass. Mrs. Swanson went with them for a three weeks' vacation.

Rev. Dr. S. G. Barnes from St. Johnsbury spent a day recently with Rev. J. K. Williams.

The house and barn in the north part of the town occupied by Andy Brock and family were burned to the ground the first of the week.

Mrs. Mackey gave a birthday party recently for her children: Agnes aged five years last April, Edward aged three in August, and Albert George aged one year the first of October. Fourteen little folks were present, who had a delightful time.

Mrs. Edward Martin and children, Ashbel and Amelia, returned Saturday to their home in New York.

Frank Renfrew from Manchester, N. H., spent a few days in town, and his daughter Alice, who has spent the past five or six weeks with her grandmother, went home with him.

Mrs. Addie Craig from Hampton, N. H., is visiting at Irving Hobart's.

Mrs. Mary Taisey is visiting at Frank Pollard's.

Mr. and Mrs. Munger and three children have gone to visit his old home in the western part of the state.

Mrs. Meroa Renfrew from North Craftsbury is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eliza Renfrew, and brother, Leonard Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson West from Danville spent Saturday at Mrs. Renfrew's.

A Family Gathering.

Mrs. Laura Palmer had a family party Saturday, when her brothers and sisters were all present: Joseph Sargent of East Peacham, Mrs. M. J. Blanchard of San Francisco, Francis Sargent of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Arabelle Hidden of Peacham. Other guests were: Martin Hidden, Mrs. F. E. Sargent and her sister, Miss Harvey, Mrs. Estes and Miss Lena Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bunker, and it is worthy of note that Mrs. Bunker was present, as she has not been away from home for six years. She is much better than she was last year. Sunday morning this family of five brothers and sisters were all at church and sat together in the Sargent pew. It is the first time they have been together for nearly 40 years. Monday they had a family gathering at the Sargent house at East Peacham and a picture was taken of the group. Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sargent leave for Washington.

Miss Elsie Choate goes Tuesday to Boston to attend a Normal school.

Pure Cream Tartar 30 cents, Bannet Oats 25 cents, Kerosene Oil 10 cents, Tobacco 9 cents, 10 pounds Soda 25 cents at B. U. Wells' Cash Store, West Danville.

Good Form in Social Affairs.

Nothing is more delightful than to be invited to visit a home where good form prevails in all things; where nothing is underdone or overdone; where there is that touch of nicety and refinement at once refreshing to the man or woman who is constantly rubbing elbows with the world. In such a home you will invariably note that Nabisco Sugar Wafers are served at luncheon or dinner or on the shady lawn. Nabisco Sugar Wafers are truly the most delightful confection ever conceived—ever dainty and delicious—and always good form.

HARVEY.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGill, Jr., have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McGill, for a few days. Mr. McGill has completed his labors at Ottawa, and will soon commence work at St. Johnsbury.

Elsie and Ruth Woodard of Hardwick recently visited Mrs. J. A. Bacon and other relatives in this vicinity.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clement and daughter Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill and daughter, Eben Hill and Mrs. Carrie Russell spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Varnum at Cambridge recently.

Carl Anderson of St. Johnsbury recently spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. O. H. Stevens.

The village schools commenced last week Tuesday with Miss Stella Church of Waterford and Miss Spooner of Randolph as teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Russell of Waterford visited their son, Henry F. Russell, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gates of South Ryegate have been visiting his sister and niece, Mrs. H. N. Clark and Mrs. F. K. Palmer.

The Grange gave a dance in Weeks' hall Friday night. Good music in attendance.

LUNENBURG.

James Phelps is repairing the inside of his house.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard have been entertaining friends from Jeffersonville during the past week.

Mrs. Maud Enright Hamlin of Fall River and aunt are visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Enright, for a short time.

Gilbert Douglass is intending to move his family to Sherbrooke very soon.

Charles Whipp has moved his family into Mrs. Josiah Benton's house at Lancaster.

M. D. Bowker, who went to the hospital at Hanover for medical treatment is improving, much to the satisfaction of his many friends.

The Woman's club held their first meeting of the year with Mrs. Ada Whipp last week on Tuesday afternoon. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Ada King.

Miss Clara Breiting, who has been spending a few weeks with her family here, returned to Lynn the middle of last week.

Miss Susie Dodge of Whitefield spent last Sunday in town.

Mrs. Cheney, who has been quite ill, is able to be up and around the house.

Byron Moulton has returned to Philadelphia.

Little dabs of Powder
Little dabs of Paint
Of course will make a pale face
Look as if it aint.
But a little Rydale's Tonic
Taken thrice a day,
Makes the pale cheek rosy
In wise old Nature's way.
It beats the artificial
Applied both thick and thin,
And can't be rubbed off with a rag
For it's underneath the skin.
So throw away your paint box Lass,
The painless pink looks best,
And Rydale's Tonic never fails
Where'er a given test.

Searles & Co.

Concord.

At the annual meeting of the Magazine club held Saturday afternoon with Mrs. C. P. Cutting Mrs. Harry May was re-elected secretary for the coming year.

The L. B. society will hold its annual meeting and election of officers at the church vestry Wednesday afternoon, September 23.

Schil Haviland has the whooping cough.

Probate Judge H. W. Blake of Island Pond was in town Monday on business connected with the estate of the late Mrs. Percis Spencer. Rev. M. H. Smith was appointed administrator.

The ladies of the Universalist church serve a baked bean supper at the vestry Saturday evening, Sept. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stevens of Johnson, N. H., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pease.

Mrs. Warren Temple, Mrs. Lena Pratt of St. Johnsbury, and Mrs. Jennie Clifford of Boston were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alby Gray.

Miss Jennie Belden has returned from her recent trip to Boston and will go to Bristol to work through the millinery season.

Mrs. Maria Huse has been making quite extensive repairs on her house.

Miss Josie Belden of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Belden.

News was received here the first of last week of the death on Sept. 6 of Mrs. Samuel Corbett of Boston, formerly Emma Odion, daughter of Mrs. Abbie Titton Odion, whose death occurred July 6, just two months previous to that of her daughter.

Mrs. Emma Quimby, Mrs. Minnie Seavey, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Higgins were called to East Concord last week to attend the funeral of Frank Higgins.

Miss Martha Parks has gone to Lunenburg to teach school.

At a recent business meeting of the Y. P. C. U. held with Mrs. Helen Lindsay Monday evening, Sept. 7, the following officers were elected for the year: President, Miss Vera Mooney; vice-pres., Miss Amy Chapman; secretary, Miss Lena Bennett; treasurer, Miss Helen Reed; organist, Miss Louise Chapman; look-out committee, Vera Mooney, Lena Bennett; devotional, Amy Chapman, Rev. Grant Van Blarcom; flower, Mrs. H. A. Joslin; Arthur Williamson, Sydney Young; social, Lena Bennett, Vera Mooney, Mrs. Helen Lindsay, Harry Bennett.

It was voted to change the hour of the Sunday evening service from 7.30 to 7 o'clock through the winter.

There was a pleasant gathering in Kirby last Saturday when descendants of the Joslin family assembled in reunion at the home of Marshall Joslin. The day was a perfect one with blue sky and autumn tints. The tables were spread beneath the trees and descendants, to the number of 69, renewed acquaintance and made merry a day that will long be cherished for its associations and memories.

W. H. Fuller of Claremont, N. H., has bought a lot at Miles Pond and will build a cottage there next spring. Henry Pratt has his cottage nearly completed.

Many of the gardens in town have been robbed the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Spencer of St. Johnsbury have been spending a few days at B. F. Woodbury's.

Dr. Addison Preston was married to Miss Bessie Wright at Passumpsic last Wednesday. Dr. Preston has made many friends during his residence in Concord who extend to him congratulations and best wishes.

John H. Wallbridge has gone to Brattleboro where he has work in the interest of the New England Farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stacy, Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer Smith, Raymond Smith, Mrs. Alex Kerr, Mrs. Lydia Houston, William Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt and Frank Winkley were at East Concord Saturday to attend the annual reunion of the Grant family held with Mr. and Mrs. John Edson. Of the original family of eight children only four are living: Frank Grant of Los Angeles, Cal., William Grant of Eden, Me., Ira Grant of East Concord and Mrs. C. L. Stacy of this place. They were all present with the exception of Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Phipps and Mrs. Shields and son of Massachusetts are new arrivals at the Proctor House in Miles Pond.

Miss Winifred Walbridge is visiting her sister, Miss Blanche Walbridge, in Boston.

Willie Virtue has returned from North Stratford, N. H., where he has spent the summer.

William Grant of Eden, Me., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Hosmer Smith.

Mrs. Mary McColis is entertaining Miss Nora Batchelder, of Barre.

Fred Brewer and son Willard, E. D. Lee and Frank Carpenter attended the Barton Fair last week.

Mrs. R. T. Johnson recently entertained her brother, Charles Weeks, of Newbury.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Miltimore have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Miltimore in Canada. They returned last of the week and with Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Miltimore of West Broome, P. Q., are visiting at Green Mountain Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gilson of East Burke were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Harvey.

Mrs. Emily May of St. Johnsbury was in town Saturday to attend the reunion of the Joslin family.

Mrs. Jacob Richardson has been entertaining her father, Albert Hill, of Hardwick and her brother, Wallace Hill, of Morrisville.

Mrs. M. H. Smith and sons, Austin and Marvin, who have spent the past three weeks visiting in the southern part of the state, have returned home.

Fred Cole, who has spent the past year as clerk at the hotel, has gone to his home in Boston.

Walter May, who has spent the summer at Center Harbor, N. H., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry May, the last of the week. Mr. May is now located at West Lebanon, N. H., as principal of the High School.

Concord Grange initiated five candidates in the first and second degrees last Friday evening. Passumpsic Grange of Passumpsic were present and worked the degrees in a highly creditable manner. Concord Grange served a bountiful chicken pie supper at the close, covers being laid for nearly a hundred.

Rexford Gray and Miss Helen Reed have entered upon their second year at St. Johnsbury Academy. George Randall and Floyd Higgins entered the academy this fall as new students.

The high school opened last Tuesday with an enrollment of 11 scholars. Miss Fannie Eastman of Bradford is the teacher.

Miss Merle Smith returns to her studies in the Lethrop school in Groton, Mass., today.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christie and daughter, Leona, have returned from a visit with relatives in Stratford, N. H.

Mrs. Emma West is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Robert Place, and son, Fred Whittle, of South Framingham.

Mrs. Walter W. Husband and son, Richard, of Washington, D. C., were recent guests of Mrs. Harry May.

Cassius McGregor has gone to Lynn, Mass., where he has a position as superintendent of an ice company.

The school board have secured the services of Miss Jennie Ranney as superintendent of schools, and her acceptance of the office meets with universal approval, as Miss Ranney is one of our best educators.

The bush supper served by the ladies of the W. R. C. at G. A. R. hall Saturday evening was a success and well patronized. Mrs. Harry May and Mrs. C. P. Cutting furnished music for marching, which was enjoyed by the young people.

Vern Howard of Barton Landing is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard.

Mrs. Dana Clark and daughter, Charlotte, have returned to their home in Medford, Mass., after spending several weeks at B. F. Woodbury's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Fuller went to Stannard on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fuller's grandmother, Mrs. Naomi Gilkerson.

Among the visitors at James Bonnett's are Harvey Burbank of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ellie Mills, Passumpsic, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bennett of Lower Waterford, and Master Elmore Fuller of Concord who stayed with his grandparents Saturday and Sunday.

WALDEN.

Mrs. Julia Rogers has returned to Medford, Mass., after spending the summer with friends here.

Pure Cream Tartar 30 cents, Bannet Oats 25 cents, Kerosene Oil 10 cents, Tobacco 9 cents, 10 pounds Soda 25 cents at B. U. Wells' Cash Store, West Danville.

EAST BURKE.

Mrs. James Gallagher is enjoying a visit from her mother from Inverness, P. Q.

Miss Florence Gibson is no better; the little Goss boys remain about the same; H. D. Webster is able to be out again.

W. H. Jeffrey is in Boston for a few days.

Mrs. Ralph Parker and son Leon, who have been visiting her parents, returned to their home at St. Johnsbury, Thursday.

Mrs. Kice is staying with Mrs. Lydia Page while Mrs. Houston is at St. Johnsbury for a few days.

E. L. Blake visited at W. B. Godding's, Friday, en route for Wyoming where he expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. E. C. Finney of Lyndonville and Mrs. H. K. Scribner of Enosburg visited at W. B. Godding's, Thursday. Mrs. Scribner will be pleasantly remembered as the Methodist pastor's wife here over 20 years ago.

Alice Dashney of West Burke visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dashney, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Parker of St. Johnsbury visited their daughter, Mrs. Gertie Baker, last week.

Rev. Mr. Fuller of Lyndon is expected to supply for Rev. O. E. Hardy next Sunday.

Miss Mildred Vance has gone to Boston to spend the winter with her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stafford leave this week for a visit to relatives in Canada and York state.

Mrs. Martha Goss is helping to care for the Goss children.

Mrs. L. A. Barney celebrated her 90th birthday, Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Silsby, formerly Katie Stafford, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to her home in Lunenburg.

Ora Jenkins has moved his family into the Darling house by the post office.

Rev. J. M. Frost of St. Johnsbury will deliver his lecture, "The Half Baked Man," in the Methodist church Friday evening.

Mr. Gibson of Enosburg was called here last week by the illness of his daughter, Florence, teacher in the primary department of the village school.

WATERFORD.

Tax Collector's Notice.
All who have not paid their taxes for 1908 are reminded that the town gives until Oct. 1 for the payment of the same. After that date the taxes will be collected in due process of law. Pay your taxes now and save extra expense.

T. H. Lyster, Tax Collector, St. Johnsbury.

Catarrah Cannot Be Cured
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cures is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

KIRBY.

Miss Eva Davis, who has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Davis, has returned to her school work at Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leach and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Crane, have been visiting friends at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Willis have returned to their home at South Acton,

Mass., after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Willis.

Mrs. W. S. Russell and Miss Freida from St. Johnsbury East have been visiting at L. J. Nickerson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nickerson visited friends in St. Albans, Maine, last week.

F. G. Williams and family from Mechanicsville, N. Y., and Mrs. G. S. Williams and daughter from St. Johnsbury visited at W. P. Russell's, recently.

Market for your Hides, Tallow and Bones.

Almost everybody knows that the place to send Beef Hides, Horse Hides, Calfskins, Sheep Pelts, Tallow and Bones, is to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vermont, who pays highest prices; remits the day following the arrival of goods at Hyde Park; pays the freight on shipments of 200 pounds or more, and keeps his customers at all times posted as to market values.

BARNET.

T. P. Robie and Lucius Gilfillan have purchased the meadow on the Connecticut river once known as the Hoyt Meadow.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peck and little daughter, who have been spending several weeks at T. P. Robie's, returned to Hanover, N. H., Monday.

Chandler Whitney, Sherburn Moore and Martin Gibson attended the Barton Fair last week.

Neal Morgan went to New London, N. H., Monday, where he enters Colby Academy.

W. H. Burbank is in Boston.

John Lang and Miss Nettie Lang attended the Lang reunion in Lancaster, N. H., last week.

Work on the school house is going on as rapidly as possible and it has been announced that the schools will open next Monday without fail, Sept. 21.

Mrs. Jane Somers, who has been spending the summer in Scotland, returned home last week in good health after a delightful trip.

Miss Jane Stevenson is very ill. Mrs. Kate Kinn is at her home caring for her.

John Ritchie, Mrs. John Warden and daughter, Miss Alice, of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Coe of East Burke and Miss Jeanette Warden of West Barnet were all in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Samuel Stoddard returned to Barton Landing this week with her granddaughter Doris Spafford, who has been visiting here.

Fred Webster has recently purchased one of the houses up near the wagon factory.

A patent has been granted H. M. Stevenson on a curtain fixture.

Passed Examination Successfully.
James Donahue, New Britain Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. W. B. Eastman.

WHEELOCK.

Charlie and May Park of Iowa, children of Simon Park, a former resident of this town, are visiting at Harry Hubbard's.

Miss Sadie Powers of Lyndonville is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hicks.

Misses Jessie and Mary Carr of Lyndonville visited at Mr. Leavett's last week.

Mrs. Amelia Lee of Sheffield spent part of last week at A. Craig's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Cree and children and Mrs. Maud and Frank Goss are camping at Willoughby Lake for a few days.

About 30 comrades and their wives and other friends met with Comrade and Mrs. Warner, Thursday. A bountiful dinner was served and in the afternoon Miss Marguerite Robinson of Lyndonville entertained the company with some very fine readings. Rev. Mr. Sargent and Rev. Mr. Kelley spoke, and selections on the phonograph were given by S. G. Cree, after which cake and ice cream were served. All went home very much pleased with the visit.

Miss Lottie Ranney and a friend from Boston are visiting her uncle, A. I. Ranney.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Goss were called to East Burke last week by the serious illness of their son, Willie's oldest boy, Earl. They brought the youngest child, a baby, home to take care of for a while.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung trouble. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. W. B. Eastman.

STANNARD.

Mrs. Naomi Gilkerson died at her home in this place Thursday morning, after a few weeks illness, at the age of 83 years, and will long be remembered as a kind and helpful neighbor in sickness and trouble. She has been a long time resident here and was a member of the Methodist church. Two daughters, Mrs. Luella Young of Alton, N. H., and Mrs. Ida Rudd, recently of Franklin, N. H., and several grandchildren mourn her death. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church Saturday. The floral offerings were very beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens and Mrs. Grace Blithen of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuller of Concord, Arthur Gilkerson of Concord, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Perley Stevens of Hardwick, were called here last week by her death.

G. P. Jackson, Mrs. S. K. Patch and Mrs. W. E. Holloway are on the sick list.

Several from this place attended Barton fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens and Miss Rachel Stevens of East Hardwick, also Kenneth Stevens of Boston, were called here Saturday to the funeral of Mrs. Gilkerson.

The buildings on the place known as the Addison Eastman farm situated near Greensboro Bend in the town of Walden were entirely consumed by fire Friday.

Chauncey Massey and family occupied the house, but were all away at the time. Their household goods were

Good Bread—We Said—
You never ate any so genuinely good—
As that made from—
"Duluth Imperial"
The flour from which any woman can make the crisp, sweet, nutritious, delicious loaf—
The kind that "husband and the children" like.
In making, or in baking—
No "mistakes" in—
"DULUTH IMPERIAL" FLOUR

E. T. & H. K. IDE, Jobbers.